EXPERIENCES FROM THE ERASMUS + PROJECTS

Erasmus+ is the programme which is prepared by the European Union. The programme targets that young people and students to give chance to visit abroad and create a value with teammates who are from different countries in a short term. The programme supports life-long learning method.

- I joined an international training course in Eskişehir for 7 days. I had a chance to get experience about Bases of NGOs. We got training how to work in NGOs, what is sustainability and greening trends. In the training there were 35 participants from 11 different countries.
- I participated another international project in Bulgaria for 21 days. The main aim of the project was giving drama training to kids who had mentally challenged. I participated as a supervisor teacher and the main expectation from me looking after kids. My fervency has shaped to my role as connective person between Turkish participants and Bulgarian coordinators. The project is finished successfully.
- I participated an organization's invitation in Spain which was basically an internship for 2 months in Spain. The fundamental expectation from me was creating awareness about social events on the official website and preparing meetings face to face. The topics were generally based on significance of sustainability for humanity, trying to prevent xenophobia on the world and so on. I experienced to make an international presentation during meetings and I got a chance to manage an organization's short time schedule. I was also guest on Spanish TV channel so I could share living abroad experiences in there.
- I participated Diplomacy and Model European Union Simulation as delegation of Spain. The topic was Russia – Ukraine War and the Circumstance of Ukrainian Nationalists on the world. As a representer of a state which is a member of European Union, I presented a lot of motions and solutions. The simulation finished successfully. I did my best and represented a state excellently.
- I participated a Youth Exchange Project in Spain. The project zone was isolated from crowded and topic was about mental health. Thanks to this project I started to pay more attention to myself. There were thirty three participants from five different countries. All of delegations shared the mainly problems of their countries and we tried to find some solutions together. I had some tasks during the project such as making presentation, kitchen handling, managing cultural evening and introducing my culture so on. I successfully completed all of these tasks with compliments, so I was qualified to receive the certificate. Consequently, the project took thirteen days. There were some tasks that I had to do individually and as a team. One of the robust challenges of the project was managing the international group. Completing the team tasks successfully made me feel grateful.

I have been explaining the context of the projects so far, These show up my social characteristics and being flexibility in my social life, adapting a new conditions very fast and manage to immediate changes that I face with.

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am quite excited to be a (JOB DESCRIPTION) opening at (NAME OF THE COMPANY). I have viewed and assessed in (NAME OF THE COMPANY) and I believe I have understood your fundamental values which are company's values.

I find your values and work ethics as a match for what I stand for, hence, I am willing to work as your team member.

I always struggle to reach my targets till I am sure to expend all resources. In my high school term, one of the most desires of mine was meeting international people and learn their livings and cultures. I also have accomplished my goal in my university period. That aim has provided many experiences to me. I expanded my worldview in a comprehensive way.

I generally try to create moderate and durable relationships in my social life and business life. There is a saying which my father uses much "I could not save lots of money but I have accumulated many people" this is my principle. My thoughts about business, there may be a best place to work that has a teamwork with sweet talk, at least we are on the same ship.

I'm looking forward to bringing my creativity, teamwork, and branding skills to (NAME OF THE COMPANY). I would love to chat more about the position. It is important to note that I am looking for full-time work and if it meets up with your expectations I can start as soon as possible. I have attached my CV for you to learn more about my qualifications. Thank you for your time and consideration.

With deepest sympathies,

BARAN OZAY
